

Heritage Stamp criteria

	Criteria	Not yet meeting expectation	Minimally meeting expectations	Fully meeting expectations	Exceeding expectations
FOR PARAGRAPH	Historical content	-minimal or no historical content -information is copied, no understanding of it	-some historical content, not enough details -information is present, but not in student's own words- not well understood or explained	-historical content is well explained -information mostly accurate	-historical content is thoroughly explained, shows understanding of historical facts -information is accurate
	Connection	-little or no explanation of choice -no link between drawing and paragraph	-simple explanation of choice -link between drawing and paragraph is hard to discern	-logical explanation of choice -link between drawing and paragraph is clear	-gives explanation of choice with insight, may show complexity -link between drawing and explanation is clear -uses symbolism
	Quality of language	-simple, repetitive language -disjointed, no/simple connecting words	-language is simple and vague -sequence is logical -connections might be unclear, awkward	-language is clear, some variety and description -sequence is logical -paragraphs or sections are linked	-language is clear, varied and precise -content is well-organized, flows smoothly
FOR DRAWING	Symbolism	-symbols and pictures chosen do not represent Canadian heritage and/or have significant inaccuracies	-symbols, pictures somewhat represent Canadian heritage, or may be vague or have minor inaccuracies	-symbols and pictures clearly and accurately represent Canadian heritage	-symbols and pictures are carefully chosen and accurately represent Canadian heritage with exceptional clarity
	Drawing quality	-drawings do not fill the stamp, lack detail and leave many large areas of white space -stamp is not coloured brightly and does not attract attention	-drawings somewhat fill the stamp and show some detail -stamp is somewhat coloured, dull colours and attracts some attention	-drawings mostly fill the postage stamp with minimal areas of white space and are sufficiently detailed -stamp is mostly coloured, colours are somewhat bright and attracts attention	-drawings fill the postage stamp without large areas of white space -stamp is completely and brightly coloured and attracts attention -stamp shows interesting or unique artistic style

